Correction and Castalia Run a Dead Heat in the First Race.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. MORRIS PARK RACE COURSE, Aug. 8 .- Morris Park was filled to overflowing to-day. An setual counting up of heads would probably have shown nearly 15,000 persons present The programme was very attractive, but the fact that it was a half-holiday and that it was excessively warm in the city probably accounted for the large attendance.

The great grand stand was delightfully coand pleasant, and the attractive card made a and pleasant, and the attractive card made a good afternoon's sport a certainty. The track was very fast and in fine shape.

The sport began with a six-furiong dash for all ages, and Correction opened up a hot favorite at even money.

Meriden opened at 2 to 1 and went up several points.

Then Circular Joe went around and distributed $100 bills on Meriden, and her price dropped faster than did the famed McGinty when he stepped into the coal hole.

P. Lorillard made one of his characteristic plunges on Dalsy Woodruff, but mostly for a place. None of the others were played.

Castalia and Correction fought it out and in a desperate finish they made a dead heat of it, with Meriden two lengths away. Messrs. Withers and Morris divided the purse.

FIRST RACE. Handicap sweepstakes, $20 each, with $1,000 added; six furlongs.

Correction jumped away in front, followed Castalia, Meriden, Kitty T. and Daisy

by Castalla, Meriden, Kitty T. and Dalsy Woodruff.
Littlefield sent Correction right on about her business, and abe opened up a gap of two lengths before Meriden, with Castalla, Dalsy Woodruff and Kitty T. next.
Meriden quit a furlong from home and Correction appeared to be winning easily.
Bergen, however, brought Castalla up with a rush, and, collaring Correction twenty yards from the wire, there was a terrific fight to the finish. The judges could not separate them, and a dead heat was announced. Meriden was third, two lengths away. Time—1 11%, Mutuels paid: Correction, straight, $5.70, place, $8.60. Castalla paid $34.20 straight, place $18.40.

Amboy Handicap, for two-year-olds, at $100 each, half forfeit, with $2,500 added; six turlongs. ERCOND BACE.

A Japanese boy who works in a San Francisco club-house sent the following picturesque complaint to the officers, says an Exchange:

"To-day I went to the club to get my wages. The steward, Mr. John, ordered me to leave, with many repetitions of abominable oaths which a man of some abominable oaths which a man or some honor can't restrain his passion from re-volt on such a violent shower of curses. Anger was beyond my control, and in-voluntarily I returned my share of com-pliments, upon which he snatched the po-tate masher and was brutal enough to give me two severe blows on my person and in-me two severe blows on my person and inflicting quite painful injury.

Through all this affair I was never offensive. When I went there to demand the money to which I was entitled he unjustly enjoined me to get out. That is an unreasonable movement, and cannot fail to hurt a man's feelings. What!

"Without being satisfied with that insuit made my blood boil and the veins burst with successive ovisinght of ignominious swear. My returning was completely excusable, for to be indifferent to

Bookmaker Webster Arraigned in Court

He Persists That Actress Evelyn Granville Is His Wife.

Refuses to Answer Questions, and I Held for the Percival Flat Crime.

Bertram C. Webster, the slaver of Broker Charles E. Goodwin, waived examination in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day and was mmitted to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Portly and Chesterfieldian Bill Howe sup ported the prisoner in person, and the dramatic feature of the arraignment was due to his presence.

Despite the boasted popularity of Book maker Webster among the men who love a horse there wasn't even one solitary sport in the court audience-not even a "tout." Handsome Bob Hilliard was the only men ber of the theatrical profession present, and he seemed to be there out of curtosity rather than as an interested friand of Webster of of his " common law " wife, Betty " Evely Granville" Green. Capt, Cross and Detective John Taylor, o the West Thirty-seventh street station brought Webster down to the court, Capt Cross walking with the prisoner from the station to the Seventh avenue car, assuring himself of his company by the use of a pair of aippers over Webster's left wrist. Webster was dressed in a suft of blue serge

Evelyn's pretty face bore no traces of trouble, though last night when she visited the police station she looked haggard and old

To-day she was pert and smiling. Her great, handsome eyes twinkled at the attention she received from the reporters, to each of whom she said sweetly and in the blandest manner possible, "I must say nothing. My lips are sealed."

Her trim form was attired in a natty suit of light gray; her nut-brown head was topped by a jaunty sailor hat of black and white straw.

by a jaunty sailor hat of black and white straw.

She looked like a sweet, little innocent girl. Mrs. Wade, the wife of Actor Wade and the housekeeper at the fashloable Percival, where the tragedy occurred, sat apart, bolt upright and forbidding, for that young woman feels scandalized by the affair.

Policeman Allen Hay, who is the nominal complainant in the case, had been searching for Mrs. Hussey, the kind-hearted occupant of a neighboring flat who brought in a hot water bag to be used in easing Goodwin after he was shot, found her this morning and brought her into court much perturbed and mortified at being connected with the case even as a witness.

Presently Bertram C. Webster was brought out of, the Jefferson Market prison and into the presence of Police Justice Kelly. Policeman Hay had sworn to his compilaint against Webster, charging him with murder when Capt. Cross beckoned to Evelyn Granville.

He stood in the doorway leading to the witness room and the young woman joined him there.

Judge Kelly so ordered just as the sometime actress re-entered the court-room with the handsome Captain behind her.

Mr. Howe called her up on the platform before the Judge's desk and said in a loud and injured tome:

PROCTOR KNOTT IS BURIED.

Mike Dwyer to Enter Kingston for the Garfield Stakes.

There will be a battle royal among the twoyear-olds at Morris Park on Tuesday next. The best youngsters now in training will meet in the Junior Champion Stakes, at threequarters of a mile, and the winner will carry off a trifle over $27,000. The race is probably the most interesting of all the two-yearold events, barring the Futurity, and every colt and filly will be as good as his or her trainer can possibly make them. Green B. Morris is training Ed Corrigan's Western vonder, Huron, for the race. He is also fitting his colt, Library. The latter has never started yet, and he is believed to be a world-beater. Matt Allen is getting have Sir Matthew and Tammany ready to upport the standard of Marcus Daly. Dave Gideon will send Merry Monarch for the race, and speedy Dagonet will do battle for John Hunter. The race will probably be the best of the year, and if any one should ask for the name of the winner whisper "Yorkville Belle," with Dagonet close up.

Tenny has got over his "sulking fit" and ts doing regular exercises. Snip Donovan had the swayback out yesterday trotting and cantering. He will be fit and ready to race in a few days.
